

Peace Action Video Series Guide

Reach Out In Service

In what ways have you reached out in service to help nature or others in the past?
How did you feel during and after this experience?

What brings you joy?
What are you passionate about in your community?
What empowers you?

Peace Action Video Series Guide

Reach Out In Service

Look back at what brings you joy, connects to your passions or empowers you. How could this become an act of service to your family, community or other levels of humanity? How can you make a small or a large impact?

Two large, light-orange brushstroke-style shapes that serve as a writing area for the user's response to the reflection questions above.

Call to Action

We invite you to set an intention for a how you will reach out in service to others. Think about how you might be needed in your community and make a plan of action.

- Identify potential barriers or challenges that might impact your plans to reach out in service.
- Envision how it may feel for you and others when you put this plan into action.

Two large, light-green brushstroke-style shapes that serve as a writing area for the user's response to the 'Call to Action' section.